

2018 ASLC Annual Board Elections and Annual Meeting Notice

All eligible members of local Audubon Chapter, Audubon Society of Lincoln City and members of National Audubon Society with Lincoln County and Tillamook County mailing addresses are encouraged to participate in ASLC's annual board election and annual meeting. To be eligible to vote, your membership in either the local or national Audubon chapter must be current as of May 15, 2018. For questions or more information, please contact ASLC Secretary at laura_doyle@charter.net

2018 ASLC Board Election:

Board election ballots will be distributed either as insert in the ASLC newsletter or through email and will also be available on the ASLC website. Ballots may be submitted by mail, email, or in person at the ASLC annual meeting. Instructions for voting by mail, email, and in person are included on the ballot. Deadline for receiving mail and email ballots is June 19, 2018.

2018 ASLC Annual Meeting:

Please join us for a potluck dinner, a short business meeting and program. Bring a dish to share. ASLC provides drinks and plates/utensils. 2018 Annual meeting agenda includes election of board officers and members-at-large. Non-members and guests are welcome although only eligible members can vote in the board election.

When: 5 PM, Thursday June 21, 2018

Where: CHR River House, Salmon River/Savage Road, Otis, OR

(*Directions to CHR River House from coastal Hwy 101: At the junction of Hwy 101 and Three Rocks Road North, travel west toward the ocean for 2.3 miles. At the "Y" in the road, turn right on to Savage Road and follow it to the end. It'll bring you down to the mouth of the Salmon River and to the Cascade Head Ranch River House.)
